

FOIAb3b

THE EVENING STAR, Washington, D. C.
TUESDAY, AUGUST 26, 1952

Louis Glaser, Veteran, Security Council Aide And D. C. Native, Dies

Louis Glaser, 61, Office of Defense Mobilization staff assistant with the National Security Council, died Sunday of leukemia in Garfield Hospital.

Mr. Glaser, a native of Washington, lived at 3040 Idaho avenue N.W. During World War I, he served as a naval ensign.

He was president of a national advertising agency in Boston from 1922 until 1942, when he went into the Army. He was sent to Europe the following year.

Mr. Glaser.

Mr. Glaser joined the Military Government detachment when it was being set up. He was stationed in Paris in 1944 and afterward in London, where he took part in making plans for the Military Government of Berlin.

Served as Chief of Branch

After the American forces arrived in Berlin in 1945, Mr. Glaser served as chief of the Civil Administration and Political Affairs Branch of the Office of Military Government, Berlin sector.

He was the United States member of the four-power committee that supervised the city-wide Berlin election of October, 1946. The same year, Mr. Glaser left the Army, but he continued in the same capacity in Berlin as a civilian.

He was a colonel in the Army Reserves.

On his return to the United States, Mr. Glaser was employed by the Central Intelligence Agency. He transferred to the National Security Council in September, 1951.

He held the Bronze Star, Army Commendation certificate, Department of the Army Civilian citation, State Department commendation and two Army commendations, all in connection with his Military Government service.

Member of Press Club.

He was a member of the National Press Club, the American Legion and he had been president of the Advertising Club of Boston in 1940.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Marguerite Kaufman Glaser; a son, Lt. Anthony J. Glaser, with the Air Force in Korea; a daughter, Mrs. Marvin Williams, Kingston, Pa.; his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Glaser, Washington; a sister, Mrs. Irvin Schloss, Baltimore; four brothers, Myron, 414 Cummings lane, Chevy Chase; Herbert, 917 North Wayne street, Arlington; Stanley, Coral Gables, Fla.; Richard, Chicago, and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow in the Fort Myer Chapel. Burial will be in Arlington Cemetery.

CPYRIGHT